Special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

Opposition to Impeachment---Butler's Declaration---A New Reconstruction Scheme ---New Orleans Riots.

WASHINGTON, February 3.—The impeachment question continues to be the absorbing theme of conversation here. That which is below set forth is substantially a correct statement of the facts known to-night.

General Butler is reported to have said today to several of his acquaintances who called on him that he is not in favor of any further action by Congress in the matter of impeachment. The proposition did well enough for electioneering purposes, but it would not do for Congress to attempt to carry it out.

Senators Sumner and Wilson also stated yesterday, in a private conversation, that they are opposed to the impeachment project. Very generally it is conceded, that the number of members of Congress who oppose the further prosecution of the impeachment, has greatly increased, and therefore there are many who suppose that the House will not adopt articles of impeachment, even if the Judiciary Committee should report such articles.

But, nevertheless, it is a fact, all statements to the contrary notwithstanding, that the Judiciary Committee have been engaged in procuring testimony looking to impeachment, and I am warranted in reiterating my paragraph on that subject in your paper of yesterday. I can state in addition, that no testimony on behalf of the President is expected to be offered before the committee.

There are but twenty-three of the impeachers proper—or those who are actively and energetically working up a case against Mr. Johnson. These members justify the removal of the President upon the higher law theory, and accord in full with Wendell Phillips as to the political necessity of deposing Mr. Johnson.

Many of the political friends of these men, however, admit that, strictly pursuing the legal definition and purport of the language of the Constitution, viz: "Treason, treachery, and other high crimes and misdemeanors," there is no evidence extant that will sustain articles of impeachment, in view of the rule of law that penal statutes must be construed strictly, and that they cannot be extended by their spirit or equity to other offences than those clearly described and provided for."

But the promoters of the scheme believe that the end sought to be accomplished, justifies the means they have adopted, which consist of a pro forma impeachment by the House, and immediate suspension of Mr Johnson in the exercise of his official functions. Unless, therefore, it can be found by a previous canvass or counting of noses that there is a majority of the House in favor of this plan, no attempt will be made to adopt articles of impeachment, and the Judiciary Committee will merely report the testimony that shall be taken. Should the number of opponents of impeachment increase in the coming week, in the ratio of their gain last week, the scheme will be abandoned.

In the meantime the action of the Reconstruction committee is awaited with intense anxiety. The committee were called together at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, and it was expected that they would bring in a report to Congress in the afternoon, but they have doubtless been unable to agree upon a plan, though it is understood that a majority of the members concur upon the main features of a practicable measure, which, if adopted by Congress, will be acceptable to the Southern people, and will speedily settle the difficult question of reconstruction.

The committee on the New Orleans riots have concluded the investigation, and are preparing their report, which it is understood will be very severe upon the New Orleans authorities, but substantially exonerates Mr. Johnson from guilty complicity in the affair.

GENERAL GRANT AND THE IMPEACHMENT.—It is stated that the Committee on the Judiciary will soon summon General Grant before them for the purpose of obtaining such information from him, as will test his fealty to the President. Should they find him leaning toward his policy so strongly as to forbid the hope that he will desert it, it is said the impeachment project will be abandoned; while, on the other hand, if there is reason to believe that he would not actively interfere for the execution of that policy, impeachment will then be prosecuted. The committee have other designs in bringing General Grant before them, which will appear in due time.—World.

SENATOR PATTERSON REQUESTED TO RESIGN. A resolution was introduced into the Senate on January 30, and referred to the committee on Federal Relations, requesting Judge Patterson, United States Senator, to resign. The preamble recites his shameful betrayal of the loyal Union men who gave him their confidence and their votes. It is thought that the resolution will pass the House by a large majority.

The New York Express is responsible for the following statement, which is interesting and important if true:

"The Jews in Bombay have been greatly excited by the publication of a pamphlet by their pontiff entitled 'The Voice of the Vigilant.'—The object of the pamphlet is to persuade the Jews that it is useless to wait any longer for the promised Messiah, as it was Jesus Christ himself who is made known in the New Testament."

Thus far, memorials signed by about two thousand persons, praying for the impeachment of the President, have been presented in the House, and laid before the Judiciary committee. The tide is turning, and petitions against the movement are coming in. Mr. Raymond has presented the memorial of Murphy, McCurdy & Warden, and a large number of other business men in the city of New York, remonstrating against movements for the impeachment of the President, and urging the necessity of adopting measures to strengthen public confidence, allay excitement, revive the interests of labor and capital, and promote the peace and prosperity of the country.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN ALABAMA.—MONTGOMERY, ALA., January 31.—The House bill to establish a system of public schools for each shall be separate in each school district, has passed.

It is understood that the Legislature will not reconsider its action on the constitutional amendment.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 20 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or south.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,

BY WHICH

Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothchilds' would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhœa, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs.———, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war preclude the idea, of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.,) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $10,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

THE SENTINEL.

W. H. PELL, EATON GALES, } Editors.

Wednesday Evening, Feb. 6, 1867.

The Situation.

The correspondence of the Baltimore Sun, which we have published in the first page of the Daily, is an encouraging view of the present temper of Congress, and of the people North, in regard to the impeachment of the President. Our private information is of the same character.

There are not wanting men at the North, and in Congress, whose feelings cannot be allayed but by some such ultra movement, as the impeachment of the President, the subordination or destruction of the Supreme Court and the territorialization of the Southern States; but it is manifest that the sober second thought of the Northern people, and especially those who are most deeply interested in the business and progress of the country, will not brook such destructive measures.

Moreover, there are plain indications of the return of a conservative spirit, spreading over the North, which we trust, argues well for the early peace and harmony of the country.

The Late Gov. Morehead.

At the last Fall Term of Rockingham Superior Court, Hon. John Kerr was appointed to deliver a eulogy on the life and character of the late Gov. Morehead, at May County Court next. To meet Mr. Kerr's arrangements, the time has been changed to Tuesday, February Term of Rockingham County Court, at Wentworth, being the 26th of the present month. The Greensboro' and Danville papers are requested to notice the change.

Relief for the People.—We publish by request the bill of Mr. Latham of Craven and the report of the Judiciary Committee upon the same.

When we alluded, hopefully, the other day, to the inauguration of some plan of relief for the people by the Legislature, it was farthest from our thoughts, that a scheme, liable to so many serious objections and to certain defeat before any Court having jurisdiction, would be presented, as will be found in the bill animadverted upon by the Judiciary committee. We had received the impression, that the bill was so framed, that it would meet the approval of the Judiciary and would be generally acceptable. A subsequent glance at the bill, satisfied us that the coulter had been stuck so deep, it must break. The views of the Judiciary Committee, we think, fully accord with the sober judgment of the people of the State. We can bear testimony to the anxiety of the Legislature to afford all the relief it can give to the people, but we are glad to say, repudiation will be shown no favor.

Immigration.—We publish to-day the Memorial of the Agricultural Society, of the county of Mecklenburg to the Legislature. We think every man in the State, who sympathises with the general desire for an increase of skillfull labor, should in every way possible, promote this design. The present condition of the State finances, we suppose, positively forbid any considerable appropriation of money to that object, yet it appears to us, the Legislature ought within its means to do what it can. The appropriation of only $10,000 by the South Carolina Legislature exhibits the right spirit, though it is evident, to do any thing effectively, a much larger sum will be required. Perhaps the formation and incorporation of an Association, embracing the whole State, might in the absence of State aid, do a great deal towards effecting the object.

Gen. [illegible] the conduct of this General in refusing to allow what the people of Galveston, Texas, considered to be suitable funeral demonstrations in honor of the lamented Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston, upon the arrival of his remains at that place, has secured him no very enviable notoriety. The papers of the whole country have ventilated the matter. Even the most radical papers at the North are said to have condemed his course. It is however, often the case, the press by this means, gives an importance to men who do not deserve it. We may have done the same thing, nearer home, and therefore, shall be more particular in future.

Southern Relief.—The efforts of those in New York, who sympathize with the needy in the South, seem to be earnestly directed to the object. A considerable amount has already been raised and the matter will be pressed. Such labors of love and charity, cannot fail to remove greatly the asperities and ill-feeling which have grown up in late years. When, however, charity is accompanied by such sentiments as characterized Mr. Beecher's late speech, it fails entirely of its object and loses its value.

Important Will Case.—Judge Merrimon passed through this city early this week, to hold a special term of the Superior Court for Chowan county, at Edenton, to try the suit pending on the will of the late James C. Johnston, Esq.—Among the eminent counsel employed, we hear the names of Judge Heath, Gov. Graham, B. F Moore, Esq., and Gov. Vance, mentioned.

Front Street Methodist Church.—The Wilmington Dispatch states that this congregation, which has been disturbed for some time, by the interference of the military, which gave the colored portion of the congregration the use of the Church during the afternoon and night, have been happily relieved by the removal of the blacks to another building. The Pastor, Rev. Mr. Dally, and his congregation, have now entire control of the Church.

Amnesty Law.—We published on yesterday a certified copy of the Amnesty Law recently passed by the Legislature. As the Courts will soon hold their sessions, it is important that they should have a certified copy of the law.

Messrs. Kenan and Waugh opposed the amendment, and the question recurring, it was rejected.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Blair offered an amendment making the appropriation $3,000 Rejected.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The House resumed the consideration of the Revenue Bill on its third reading.

The only material amendment adopted on this reading, was the following, offered by Mr. Durham, as section 7, under the head of exemptions:

The property and polls of all persons who have lost an arm, leg, hand or foot in the military, naval or marine service of the State, or the late Confederate States, or who have been disabled from performing ordinary manual labor by any other wound, or any disease or accident in said service, also the property of the widows of all persons who have lost their lives in said service: Provided, that the property exempted of each person herein included, shall not exceed two hundred and fifty dollars in value; and provided further, that the excess over two hundred and fifty dollars in value of the property of all such persons, shall be subject to taxation as other property. And it shall be the duty of the County Courts in the several counties of the State, upon motion, to examine the claims of all persons claiming the benefits of the foregoing section, and upon proof that they are included within its provisions, to grant certificates of exemption to such persons, which certificates shall be issued by the Clerk, and he shall receive no fee therefor.

(This amendment when first introduced, proposed to exempt $500 worth of property, but was modified, at the instance of Mr. Morehead, by reducing the amount exempted to $250.)

The question recurring on the passage of the bill its third reading, Mr. Logan moved its reference to the Finance committee with instructions to report a bill to raise revenue adequate only to the ordinary expenses of the State.

Mr. Logan said that he did not object to the principle of the bill, or the subjects of taxation, but according to the Treasurer's statement, but $490,535, was needed to meet the ordinary expenses of the two fiscal years, ending September 1868. He was therefore opposed to the onerous and oppressive taxation proposed in the bill.

Mr. Harper defended the bill and opposed the motion to refer.

The House refused to refer, and the bill passed its 3rd reading Yeas 70 Nays 27.

The House then adjourned.

Josh Billing's Essa Onto Swine.—Hogs generally are quadripid.

The extreme length ov their antiquity has never been fully discovered; they existed a long time before the flood, and they existed a long time since.

There iz a grate deal ov internal revenew in a hog; there ain't much more waste in them than there iz in an oyster.

Even their tails can be worked up into whissels.

Hogs are good, quiet boarders; they always eat what is set before them, and don't ask eny foolish questions.

They never hev eny disease but the measels, and they never hev that but once; once seems to satisfy them.

There is a grate menny breeds among them.

Some are a close corporation breed, and some are bilt more apart, like a hemlock slab.

They use to hev a breed in New England a few years ago, which they called the striped hog breed; this breed was in great repute among the landlords; almost every tavern-keeper had one, which he used tew show tew travellers and brag on him.

Some are full in the face, like a town clock, and some are as long and lean as a cow-catcher with a steal-pinted nose on them.

They kan awl rote well; a hog that kant rute well haz been male in vain.

They are a short-lived animal, and generally die as soon as they git fatt.

The hog cen be lernt a great manny cunning things, such as histing the front gate off the hinges, tipping over the swill barrels, and finding a hole in the fence tew git into a cornfield; but thare ain't enny length to their memery; it iz awful hard for them tew find the same hole tew git out at, especially if you are at all anxious they should.

Hogs are very contrary, and seldom drive well the same way yu are going; they drive most the other way; this haz never bin fully explained, but speaks volumes for the hog.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall be in force from its ratification.

REPORT OF THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE ON BILL (H. 260) FOR THE RELIEF OF THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Judiciary Committee to which was referred House Bill No. 260, entitled "A Bill for the relief of the people of North Carolina," have had the same under consideration, and respectfully recommend that it do not pass.

In an ordinary case the Committee would stop here, but on account of the general interest felt in this subject, and to relieve a misapprehension which seems to exist as to the spirit of this Committee upon the question of relief for the people, they trust it will not be improper to lay before the House the reasons of their recommendation.

The first and second sections of the Bill take away all remedy whatever, heretofore allowed for the collection of debts. This purpose of the bill is not attempted to be disguised, but is candidly acknowledged in the title, which broadly asserts that it is for the relief of the people of North Carolina. The other sections are intended to supply the machinery for carrying out this desiga, in the shape of heavy pains and penalties upon creditors, Clerks and Sheriffs, who violate its provisions, while the 6th section aims to strip the Supreme Court of its long established prerogative of construing all Acts of the Legislature—thus giving the Bill the "ear marks" of that same radicalism which threatens such havoc to the best interests of the whole country. Such a law as this would delude the people for a little while, perhaps, with the semblance of relief, but the first Court that examined it would declare it null and void, and the people, instead of relief, would reap only an aggravation of their distress. For it is well settled that such a law is beyond the power of this General Assembly. When North Carolina became a party to the Federal Constitution, she expressly stripped herself of the authority over contracts which this bill asserts. The Committee believe that no argument is necessary to establish this position, and they will content themselves with a single extract from the opinion of Chief Justice Taney, in the case of Bronson vs. Kinzie and others, reported in 1st Howard, p. 317.

"It is difficult, perhaps, to draw a line that would be applicable in all cases between legitimate alterations of the remedy and provisions which, in the form of remedy, impair the right. But it is manifest that the obligation of the contract and the rights of the party under it may, in effect, be destroyed by denying a remedy altogether, or may be seriously impaired by burdening the proceedings with new conditions and restrictions, so as to make the remedy hardly worth pursuing; and no one, we presume, would say that there is any difference between a retrospective law declaring a particular contract or class of contracts to be abrogated and void, and one which took away all remedy to enforce them or encumbered it with conditions that rendered it useless or impracticable to pursue it."

This opinion, of one of the most eminent Judges of the country, could be sustained, if necessary, by authorities from every State in the Union. Indeed, the author of the Bill has virtually admitted its weakness, in attempting, as he does in the 6th section, to shield it from the scrutiny of the Supreme Court. If there were room for a difference of opinion as to the constitutionality of any proposed scheme for the relief of the people, which might be referred to this Committee, recognizing as they do, the propriety of some reasonable and properly guarded indulgence to poor and honest debtors, they would most cheerfully allow it to stand upon its merits alone, leaving the doubtful question of law to be settled by the Courts. But the bill under consideration, proposes such an undisguised and glaring violation of the Constitution, that it would be impossible for this Committee to recommend it to the House, even if its merits were conspicuous and unquestionable. On the other hand, if it were clearly within the constitutional power of this Legislature to enact it into a law, the disastrious consequences of its passage to almost every interest in the State, may be foresеen with sufficient clearness to justify its rejection. Indeed, it is an evidence of the saving value of the constitutional prohibition upon the States, to impair the obligation of contracts. In ordinary times, when there is no tendency in State Legislation to violate the sanctity of contracts, this restriction upon their powers does no good, for there is no necessity for it, and it is only when such dangerous and unwise schemes as this are proposed, that the occasion arises, for the display of its virtue and efficacy in holding men to the performance of their honest obligations. This bill, in its sweeping abrogation of the remedy upon all contracts, whether made before or since the war, or to be made hereafter, is nothing more nor less than repudiation. No man would hereafter credit his neighbor, except upon the precarious security of his neighbor's sense of honor, when that sense of honor had become blunted by that entire disregard of all his past obligations, which this measure encourages.

Our people could no longer procure the means of carrying on their business upon the faith of future returns, and our farms would lie untilled and our stores and workshops be closed, except those of the fortunate few who could command cash capital. The confidence of the people in their Legislature and each other, would be lost, and the final blow would be administered to our tottering State credit. The enactment of such a law would be taken abroad as an evidence of our intention to repudiate our debts, and of a demoralized public sentiment among us, so that our State bonds, upon which we are relying for the completion of our Rail Roads, and the resuscitation of our languishing public interests of every kind, would be offered in vain in the markets of the world, for anything but a ruinous discount.

But the committee will not attempt to detail all the mischevous results of such legislation, as in their opinion they will appear obvious to the House on the consideration of the bill.

Upon the subject of relief for the people from their present distress, on account of their inability to meet their indebtedness, the committee would venture a suggestion or two.

It is almost impossible, with the Constitutional restriction upon our authority over contracts, for this General Assembly to pass any law for the relief of debtors, that will be free from Constitutional objections. It is, therefore, plain, that our scheme for relief must rest, for its success, upon the acquiescence of the people, and this acquiescence will not be extended to any measure that entirely ignores the rights of creditors. Again, it should be remembered that among our constituents, there are creditors as well as debtors, and those debtors need relief who are poor as well as honest.

The debtor whose means are ample to meet the demands of his, perhaps, suffering creditors (for there may be rich debtors and poor creditors) but who desire to avoid them, by borrowing from the general distress, to shield his dishonesty, has no claim upon us for relief. Again, it should be remembered, that by as much as we ease the load of the debtor we increase the embarrassment of the creditor class, unless our schemes are properly guarded, and we should be cautious, lest in being generous to one class, we should fail to be just to another.

These sweeping schemes for relief, which make no distinction between debtors who need indulgence, and those who do not, afford encouragement to dishonesty, and in as far as they relieve debtors who are not in want of it, unjustly and unnecessarily harrass another class of our constituents. Those creditors of our people who are non-residents, are beyond our control. The United States Courts furnish them the means of promptly recovering their debts, provided they amount to five hundred dollars, and it is within the power of Congress to extend their jurisdiction to smaller sums, which Congress will assuredly do, if the laws of the State furnish them no remedy. These considerations plainly teach us, that in this matter, moderation is wisdom, and prudence dictates that we should be careful of shocking the sense of fairness of that class of our people whose rights are, after all, in their own hands. That this Committee is not hostile to any scheme for relief, is evidenced by the fact that the Bill to amend the Stay Law, passed before the recess, which postponed the payment of the debtor's installment till the Spring of 1868, if he cannot pay it at the ensuing Spring term, the Bill to establish a Homestead, and also the Bill lately passed to abolish imprisonment for debt, were all framed and introduced by members of this Committee. Should they become laws, the Committee would suggest that they would contribute greatly to relieve the present distress of the people, especially if in addition thereto, a Bill which has passed the Senate, which prohibits sales of property under execution for less than three-fourths of its appraised value, shall receive the approbation of the House. If debtors are relieved of the trouble of procuring bail, are allowed an additional year to raise the small instalment of a tenth, without, in the meantime, giving the creditor any security whatever, as a compensation for the delay; and if, when after final payment, they are assured that their property will not be sacrificed under the Sheriff's hammer, but must bring at least three-fourths of its appraised value, then, in the opinion of the Committee, this Legislature has afforded all the relief it is proper or possible to give.

JNO. M. PERRY,
For the Committee.

In Search of Labor.—Considerable sensation has been produced among the freedmen of this city by the arrival of a number of gentlemen from plantations in the South and Southwest, in quest of labor for the coming season.

The inducements they offer are quite liberal, and, fully appreciating the necessity existing for the cultivation of the soil, they are by no means tardy in their efforts. As there seems to be a mania existing among the freedmen to emigrate further South, the efforts of those gentlemen have been productive of considerable success.

The enterprise they are embarked in is by no means a light one, but requires considerable exertion to insure its success.

The negroes seemed somewhat wary at first to accept of the offers of strangers, but, backed by the assurances of some of their own race who had accepted of the inducements offered, many of them have agreed to the terms of the contract extended, and have resolved to go to work. Wil. Journal.

A FEW WORDS TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I advertised in the early part of the season that I would sell goods as cheap, as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, Cost Houses not excepted—as cheap as he who had paid for his goods, or ever intended to pay for them. And I here take the privilege to say, that I think my customers will bear me out when I say, I have done so in almost every instance.

I told the people to "come to Creech's," to buy their goods—they have come, and they are still coming—and I think they will pardon me when I say they have shown their good judgment.

I now tell them to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods.

I don't advertise my goods at New York Cost.—I intend to represent my goods to you in a fair and equitable way, and sell them fully as cheap as any so-called Cost House. And I here say to the so-called cost gentlemen, if they paid what they charge their customers for goods, I advise them to go back to the License man and surrender their license. Go back to your Land-lords and ask them to take back your houses,—and proclaim to the world that you have missed your calling, and are not fit for merchants.

I compromised my debts that I owed North before the war, by paying them at one hundred cents in the dollar.

Let them start their opposition—let them all talk. But "come to Creech's," to buy your goods. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, ready and willing at all times to serve you right.

THE SENTINEL.

WARRENTON COURIER.—We have received the first No. of a new paper just issued in Warrenton. It promises to be an excellent weekly, under the editorial control of Rev. J. B. Solomon, and published by Mr. I. H. Bennett, at $2 per annum. We have placed it on our exchange list, as requested.

Memorial in Regard to Immigration.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., January 24th, 1867.

To the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina:

The undersigned were appointed a Committee by the Mecklenburg Agricultural Society, to memorialize your honorable body on the subject of encouraging and promoting foreign immigration to this State.

Your memorialists would respectfully submit, that the experience of Agriculturalists for the past eighteen months, as well as the present scarcity of reliable, steady farm hands, shows the necessity for an increased supply of laborers and industrious cultivators and tenants of our lands.

Hundreds and thousands of freedmen (our former laborers) are being induced to leave the State, under promise of higher wages in Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Texas, thus creating an actual necessity here for another class of laborers. We feel confident that the people of this State, generally, are disposed to deal kindly and liberally with the freedman, and give him a fair chance to earn an honest living; but it is well known that in many sections of the State, he is not disposed to enter into contract for constant and regular labor during the year; and the consequence is, the planter is unable to make accurate calculations in pitching his crops or preparing for future operations.

Your memorialists therefore ask the General Assembly to adopt some plan to encourage immigration from Europe or elsewhere, of steady laborers and Agriculturalists, and to aid such immigrants in procuring employment, or purchasing lands for cultivation—not by giving them money, but by affording them information and proper directions.

If the General Assembly would adopt some plan for making known to foreigners and others the salubriousness of our climate, the productiveness of our lands, the vast extent of our mineral resources, and the kindly disposition of our people towards any who may choose to settle among us for mining, agricultural pursuits, &c., we think the prosperity of the State would be promoted and much good accomplished.

Productive lands, situated in all parts of the State, can be purchased at very reasonable rates; but the difficulty is, there is no systematic method for making this fact known to foreigners who are anxious to buy, or for assisting immigrants in making selections. By aiding our land holders to sell a portion of their surplus land at fair prices, we respectfully submit, that the wealth and prosperity of all would be greatly increased.

The desired object might be accomplished by one of three methods. 1st. By appointing a commissioner to go abroad and induce immigrants to come to the State. 2d. By incorporating a company to promote the object on the plan of land subscriptions or donations. 3d. By establishing a Bureau, under the direction of the Governor, to take control over the matter.

From the peculiar circumstances by which we are surrounded, and from the experience of nearly all planters, your memorialists believe that the General Assembly are fully impressed with the wants of our State in an Agricultural point of view, and therefore deem it unnecessary to enter into any lengthy argument on the subject. They merely aim to direct attention to the matter, and respectfully ask that such action may be taken as your honorable body may consider right and proper.

Respectfully,

JNO. A. YOUNG,
WM. J. YATES,
R. P. WARING,
RUFUS BARRINGER,
J. E. BROWN,

Committee on behalf of the Mecklenburg Agricultural Society.

HOW TO DESTROY THEM.—We learn that farmers are being annoyed very much by crows. Last Spring large quantities of young corn was destroyed by these birds, and during the winter they have seriously interfered with feeding stock. A farmer requests us to say that now is the time to destroy these pests. Soak corn in Strychnine and put it where the crows gather. One farmer killed 35 in one morning in this way.—Charlotte Democrat.

Our Wednesday Morning Dispatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

The author of the letter which led to the resignation of Motley is Geo. W. McCracken of New York.

Gov. Sharkey is in bad health, and will leave as soon as he is able.

Gov. Parsons leaves to-morrow and is authorized to say that the features of the new plan of adjustment, as published both North and South, is garbled and unreliable.

Gentlemen prominent in the project regret its publication. The true text of the scheme will be presented to the North Carolina Legislature in a few days. And will be given to the public by that body. The scheme originated with Southern men without formal consultation with either political party. It is claimed by its friends that it will meet the demands of the great conservative element of the country, and drive the extremists into reasonable terms.

The morning train southward will not leave till noon, on account of the damage to the bridge.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

In the Senate the bill praying war claims was amened so as to exclude claims from the Southern States, and passed.

The Secretary of the Treasury was called on for information in regard to the cotton seized during the rebellion. The disposition of the proceeds, with the names of the parties interested.

The bankrupt bill was resumed. An amendment, that persons unable to take the test-oath be excluded from its benefits, was lost. Yeas 10, nays 30, and the bill itself was defeated by 20 to 22.

In the House, the Post Office Committee was instructed to enquire into the expediency of building a Post Office, Court Room and Custom House at Nashville.

The majority of the Committee on Indian Affairs reported favorably to Louis V. Bogg's contracts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.

The Washington special of the Times says, that it is known that the President has telegraphed, as a private citizen, to the Southern Legislatures urging the adoption of the "new plan."

Mr. McCracken, the author of the Motley letter says, that a majority of our Foreign Missions are held by Massachusetts puritans, and controlled by such men as Phillips, Butler, Zash and Chandler, and that it is his patriotic duty to inform Mr. Seward how the country is misrepresented.

The Queens' Speech.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.

The Queens speech in full has been received by telegraph. She hopes that the Prussian, Austrian and Italian war will lead to the permanent peace of Europe. Predicts the early removal of the grounds of difficulty with the United States. Favors a closer Union among the American provinces. Regards Fenianism as suppressed. And thanks God for the disappearance of the cholera and cattle plague.

DIED,

At the residence of her father, in this county, on the 20th. of Jan., DELIA MITCHINER, in the 17th. year of her age.

Thus hath passed from life unto death, one who by her blameless life, and affectionate ways, had endeared herself to all who knew her. She had suffered long and severely, and God in his Providence, saw fit, to transplant her to a clime where suffering and pain are never felt.

She expressed herself as perfectly willing to die and requested her family and friends to meet her in a better world. May they and all who loved her, so live, that when the hour of death draws near, they too may re-echo her dying words. "Come Jesus, come now."

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.50
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure admit that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loaning $25,000 the past year has received cash—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $ 500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time.—It is under the direction of a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia
MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United states, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
